Duet Seeks New Office Space

In all things there is a season. The time has come for Duet to find new office space for our growing staff and services. The building we are currently in will be torn down in the next four to six months. Duet is grateful to Church of the Beatitudes for housing us for the past 35 years. A space committee task force is in full effect and is actively exploring viable office space options. Read the full press release for more details.

Volunteers Needed to Deliver Hope and Vital Services this Summer

The temperatures are on the rise in the Valley of the Sun, and so is the need for volunteers at Duet. The wait list has soared to 90 homebound adults waiting for vital volunteer services such as grocery shopping, friendly visiting and transportation to medical appointments. Duet Cabaret Delivers a Grand Time

The 36th Annual Duet Cabaret gathered more than 350 Duet supporters who generously gave $115,000 in net proceeds. The Avent Grandfamily received three standing ovations during their acceptance speeches as the Duet Partners of the Year for the awareness they have raised about grandparents and the children they are raising. Guests were inspired to give thanks to the generous leadership gift from Dr. Pauline Komnenich of $10,000, as well as the significant efforts of Chairperson Dr. Wilma Basnett Emerson, the Duet Cabaret Steering Committee, generous live and silent auction donors, auctioneer Rabbi Marty Scharf, table hosts and attendees. Rev. Dr. Dosia Carlson, Duet's founding executive director, gave moving remarks about how Duet has made an impact in her own life as a caregiver. Thanks to everyone involved with making this event a soulful success!
